

Family Adoption Programme

As the CBME curriculum has been imbibed in the medical education, one of the strategies in it to make the Indian Medical Graduates to get trained in Community based Health care and thereby enhance equity in health is “THE FAMILY ADOPTION PROGRAMME.”

In the view of adopting this programme, at the outset, the students have to be sensitized to the Primary health care and the importance of improving the health of the family towards achieving a better community with optimum health.

First Year

Socio Demographic Profile of Families
Dietary History, Nutritional Habits and Counseling

Second Year

Environmental Factors
Social Habits Customs and Addictions Economic Status

Third Year

Vital Events Preventive Check Up
Presentation of Family Study Survey

