

Public Health Preparedness Workshop

The Public Health Preparedness Workshop is organized by the Department of Community Medicine for CRMIs to enhance their understanding of Emergency Preparedness, Response and Resilience in public health. This is to equip students with the knowledge and skills required to respond effectively to various public health emergencies.

